

BIEBELBERG & MARTIN

We want to maximize results for every client.

BIEBELBERG & MARTIN PROVIDES ITS CLIENTS—WHETHER substantial corporations or individuals—with optimal representation at a reasonable cost.

The firm's attorneys practice in the areas of medical malpractice, products liability, business litigation, estate disputes, white-collar criminal defense, real estate litigation and divorce.

"Our lawyers share the same goals: the highest level of competence, unwavering adherence to the rules of ethics, and complete dedication to each client," says Keith Biebelberg, co-founder of the firm. "Throughout our representation of a client, he or she must feel that we care deeply and that the retention of our law firm was a wise choice."

Biebelberg & Martin attorneys are litigators and will take a case to trial if that is what needs to be done to resolve a lawsuit in the best interests of their clients.

"We do not merely 'posture' in assuring the opposition we will take a case to trial," Biebelberg says. "If the opposition is being less than reasonable, and the case can be won at trial with careful preparation and excellent presentation, it should be tried."

"We feel that the experience of our partners in trial work is a vital asset to our clients," Biebelberg says.

The firm was founded in 1990 by Biebelberg and Gerald J. Martin, both of whom are listed in New Jersey Super Lawyers® in 2009.

Biebelberg graduated from Rutgers Law School in 1983. He is certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a civil trial attorney. Biebelberg focuses on trial work, including business litigation, estate disputes, white-collar criminal defense and divorce litigation. Biebelberg also has presented appellate matters to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 3rd Circuit, the Supreme Court of New Jersey and the Appellate Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey.

Martin graduated from Fordham Law School in 1980. His practice focuses on serious personal injury cases, including medical malpractice and products liability plaintiff's lawsuits, business litigation and real estate lawsuits. Martin litigates extensively in the state and federal courts.
